

2008 North Carolina Public Health Association Annual Educational Conference

Call for Posters

A Statewide Conference for all Public Health Disciplines

“Showcasing North Carolina Public Health: People, Pride and Professionalism”

Conference Date: September 24-26, 2008

Conference Location: Sheraton New Bern Hotel & Marina

Deadline for Proposal Submission: August 1, 2008

The NCPHA Poster Session Committee is requesting poster presentations from public health practitioners, researchers and students for the second NCPHA Annual Educational Conference Poster Session. We invite you to consider presenting the programs and research you are working on to your colleagues from across the state.

Suggested poster topics and content ideas:

Translational Public Health Research	Pride in Public Health Week/ Month Projects
Behavioral and Environmental Health Interventions and Programs	Student Internship and Practicum Projects
Changes and Challenges for Public Health Practitioners	Recent Biomedical Research Discoveries
Applications of Public Health Advocacy	Non-Profit and Health Care Management
Public Health Infrastructure and Capacity	Public Health Informatics/ Technology Application

This list is for guidance. The committee will consider other topics as well and will give preference to those posters that will effectively demonstrate changes, challenges, and great expectations for public health practice and research.

Presentation Guidelines:

Posters should be designed for the community of public health practitioners and researchers and should focus on a challenge, effective practice, and/or lesson learned through public health research and/or practice. The poster session presentations are tentatively scheduled for September 24th. Poster presenters will be expected to provide handouts and be available to discuss their work during this session.

*NOTE: Please do not submit a poster proposal if you are not able to attend this session. You are not required to be a member of NCPHA to participate in the poster session, and will receive a reduced rate of $\frac{1}{2}$ off registration fees if you are selected as a poster presenter.
