

NCPHA Women's and Children's Health Section Scholarship
In Memory of Dr. Ann F. Wolfe

The NCPHA Women's and Children's Health (WCH) Section Scholarship Committee is pleased to announce that scholarships will be available for applicants that meet the following criteria:

1. The Dr. Ann F. Wolfe scholarships shall be awarded at the Annual Educational Conference of the North Carolina Public Health Association to a public health practitioner working in a Child Health, Family Planning, Maternal Health, WCH or BCCCP program of a public health department in North Carolina.
2. The applicant(s) must confirm in writing that it is his/her intent to work in their public health agency in North Carolina for at least two (2) years following completion of training. Applications must be submitted to the WCH Scholarship Committee by June 15th.
3. The recipient(s) must be a current member(s) of NCPHA.
4. The recipient(s) must be enrolled or eligible to attend the advanced training. The following factors will be taken into account in selecting scholarship recipients(s):
  - Current position and training requirements
  - Community need for the provision of the WCH service in their agency
  - Financial need and/or hardship to the local agency with financing the cost of the training and associated expenses
5. A letter of recommendation and confirmation from the Health Director, Clinical Supervisor or the Nursing Supervisor of the local health department is to be submitted with the application to verify the scholarship request by the employee and the agency's need for the employee to attend the training or educational program.
